The 2,650-guest Koningsdam is the first of her class, ushering in a new era of Pinnacle-class cruising. At the heart of the ship, Koningsdam's central atrium is pure visual drama. Soaring three decks high, the space is graced by an airy stainless steel sculpture that evokes the feeling of a classical quartet, with strings, arches, and bows. Onboard activities abound, including intimate tasting and wine-blending classes at BLEND by Chateau St. Michelle. There are ten delicious dining venues or rejuvenate at the Greenhouse Spa. Take a Pilates class or simply relax and unwind. Dazzling entertainment options abound on board Koningsdam. The new Lincoln Center Stage and Billboard Onboard venues join the already popular B.B. King's Blues Club for a complete new "Music Walk" experience.

Clothing on board MS Koningsdam

During the day casual clothing is typical, although shorts and swimwear are not permitted in the restaurants. During the evening on formal nights, a dinner suit or dark suit for gentlemen and eveningwear for ladies is required in the main restaurants. Casual nights require a collared shirt for gentlemen. The self-service restaurants are casual.

Don't worry about coming alone

About a third of people on the cruise travel alone. We will match people up in twin-share cabins when available – saving you the single supplement. You won't be left alone; the Travelrite tour manager will be there to guide you. There will be group activities almost every day.
